India

Rajasthan & Varanasi

Welcome to the enchanting journey through some of India's most captivating cities: Agra, Varanasi, Jaipur, Jodhpur, and Jaisalmer. As you embark on this odyssey, you'll discover a tapestry of history, culture, and spirituality woven into the fabric of each destination, offering a truly immersive experience into the heart and soul of India.

In Agra, marvel at the iconic Taj Mahal before exploring its bustling markets and rich Mughal heritage.

Varanasi, the spiritual capital, invites you to witness ancient rituals along the Ganges River and immerse yourself in its timeless traditions.

Jaipur, the "Pink City," captivates with its majestic forts, opulent palaces, and vibrant bazaars, showcasing the regal heritage of Rajasthan.

Jodhpur, the "Blue City," boasts azure-hued buildings against the desert backdrop, inviting you to explore its forts and immerse yourself in Rajasthan's rich culture.

Lastly, Jaisalmer, the "Golden City," enchants with its sandstone forts and desert landscapes, offering camel safaris and mesmerizing sunsets.

Together, these cities promise a kaleidoscope of experiences that showcase the diversity and beauty of India. So pack your bags and embark on this unforgettable adventure with us!

OUR UNIQUENESS

Why choose us?

02 EXPLORE INDIA IN ONE GO.

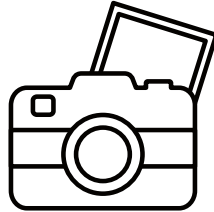

On this tour, we will explore some of the most enchanting cities in India. In addition to the prominent city in Rajasthan, we will also visit Varanasi, renowned as one of the holiest sites in Indian and Buddhist traditions.

04 4* 5* HOTEL EXPERIENCES

Staying at a 4-star or 5-star hotel in India promises an indulgent experience.

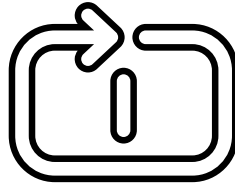

06 SUPPORT ON E-VISA APPLICATION

You are only required to provide us with the necessary information, and we will assist you with your Indian e-visa application.

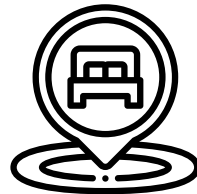

01 PHOTO MEMORIES BY TOUR LEADER

Our leader will do photography throughout the journey (with no additional charges), capturing the precious moments of your journey through the lens.

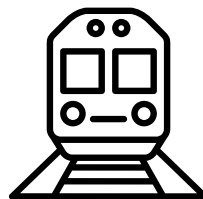

03 2X DOMESTIC FLIGHTS

Utilizing two domestic flights: from New Delhi to Varanasi and from Jaisalmer to New Delhi.

This would eliminate the need for extensive road journeys exceeding 10 hours each, thereby optimizing travel time and efficiency.

05 OVERNIGHT TRAIN EXPERIENCE

It might be a bumpy night ride, but it will surely be an unforgettable train memory!

WHAT TO KNOW BEFORE COMING TO INDIA

- India is a diverse country with various cultures, languages, and customs. It's essential to respect local customs and traditions, including dress codes, etiquette, and religious practices.
- While India is generally a safe destination for travelers, it's essential to remain vigilant, especially in crowded tourist areas where pickpocketing and petty theft can occur.
- Many major cities in India experience heavy traffic congestion. While traffic rules exist, adherence to them can be inconsistent. Traffic signals and signs may not always be followed, and lane discipline can be lacking, leading to chaotic traffic flow.
- The quality of roads varies across different parts of the country. While major highways and expressways are generally well-maintained, smaller roads in urban areas may have potholes, uneven surfaces, or inadequate signage.
- Indian cuisine is diverse and flavorful. Be adventurous and try local dishes, but be cautious about street food to avoid foodborne illnesses.
- Drink bottled or filtered water to avoid waterborne diseases, and avoid consuming uncooked fruits and vegetables unless they have been washed thoroughly.
- Consider vaccination for typhoid and take necessary health precautions. Consult your doctor for advice on vaccination and medications such as traveler diarrheas.
- It's crucial to ensure you have travel insurance that provides coverage for both medical expenses and luggage.

FAQ

What is the best time to visit India?

The best time to visit India depends on the region you plan to explore. Generally, the winter months (November to February) are ideal for most parts of the country, as the weather is cooler and more comfortable.

Is a Visa required for traveling to India?

Yes, a visa is required. Passport holder of Malaysia/ Singapore can apply for an eVisa online.

What is the weather like around India during November December?

In November and December, Northern India experiences cool to cold temperatures. Cities like Delhi, Agra, and Jaipur have pleasant daytime temperatures ranging from around 15°C to 25°C but can get colder at night, particularly in December.

What health precautions should I take?

Be cautious about what you eat and drink to avoid gastrointestinal illnesses. Stick to bottled or purified water for drinking and avoid consuming ice, raw or undercooked foods, and street vendor fare that may not be properly prepared or stored. Opt for freshly cooked and hot meals from reputable restaurants and avoid eating fruits or vegetables that may have been washed in tap water.

What is the currency used in India, and how do I access money?

The currency used in India is the Indian Rupee (INR). You can exchange currency at banks, authorized exchange counters, and ATMs, which are widely available in urban areas. Credit and debit cards are also accepted at most hotels, restaurants, and shops.

What kind of clothing should I pack for this tour?

India can be quite warm and humid, especially during the day, so pack lightweight and breathable clothing made from natural fabrics like cotton or linen. Opt for loose-fitting tops, shirts, and pants to stay comfortable in the heat.

Is infrastructure consistent across the places that we will visit?

Overall, while cities like Delhi and Jaipur have more consistent and developed infrastructure due to their status as major tourist destinations, others like Varanasi, Jodhpur and Jaisalmer may have more basic amenities and services. It's essential to be prepared for varying levels of infrastructure and adjust your expectations accordingly while traveling through these cities.

Is bargaining common in India?

Yes, bargaining is common in markets, bazaars, and with street vendors in India. It's expected to negotiate prices, especially when shopping for souvenirs, clothing, and handicrafts. However, be respectful and courteous during the bargaining process.
